Our Story

What many would call “waste,” we see as an opportunity to tell stories, preserve nature, and connect people. In the hands of Vietnamese artisans, upcycled corn husks become handcrafted flowers and botanical beauty. Our brand is rooted in sustainability, guided by purpose, and inspired by nature’s quiet resilience, where no gesture of love is ever forgotten. Join us in creating a new standard for meaningful gifting.

Send love with purpose!

The Process

STEP 1

Select young and clean corn husks

STEP 2

Air-dry untreated husks for 1-3 days

STEP 3

Corn husks are boiled and treated in solution for two hours

STEP 4

Air-dry cooked husks for 1-3 days

STEP 5

Dye husks with color from various natural pigments

STEP 6

Air-dry for 1-3 days again after coloring process

STEP 7

Husks are ironed and cut into various shapes

STEP 8

Artisans shape the husks into one-of-a-kind works of art

Greeting Cards

Join us to create meaningful gifting experiences with eco-friendly greeting cards handmade from upcycled corn husks. Love and Special Occasions

No two cards are alike, just like flowers in the wild. The people closest to us are one-of-a-kind, and deserve to be celebrated in such a way. That's why every detail on every card is handcrafted from real corn husks, meaning each card sold is as unique as the love it celebrates.
